End of Term

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

What a busy week this has been—especially yesterday!!

The day started with Perform Education with Emma and Nathan presenting “Treasure Hunt”, based around this year’s Book Week theme. Both Nathan and Emma were really impressed with the students’ audience behaviour and manners and the depth of questions they asked, or answered. Well done, kids. These compliments make me proud of all of you!

Following the Performance, classes started their dance lessons—a little later than usual, but we still managed to fit all classes in for their time allocation. Once again, Mollie was so impressed with how quickly the students have learnt their full dance in only 3 weeks—now they only need to fine tune their timing and working as a team. Impressive and another positive!

Mrs Waters organised an Incursion which saw the students investigate “wiggly” bugs in the water—looking at them through the microscopes and isoscopes. Very exciting. Our visiting presenter was so impressed with the Science room and how well it is resourced. Well done, Mrs Waters!

All in all, it was a great day and along with normal school work, I think everyone went home quite tired. I know I did!

Today we started with our Assembly run by the Room 7 students. The role plays were very good and I hope everyone was able to understand the messages they were giving. I think the most important one was—“Be Kind”. If everyone remembered those two words and, passed it on to family and friends, the world would be a happier and better place.

We then had our Photos taken. Parents, please remember that all orders will be done online this year, directly to 3P Photography, and any queries should be directed to them. Usually the proofs come back to us within a couple of weeks so that we can check the spelling of students’ names and correct them before they are printed.

It was great to see the students in their school polo tops for photos—now we need to work on having the Royal Blue pants / skirts and being in full uniform. We have a really smart uniform but I have noticed that, with the cooler weather, I have started seeing all sorts of tops and bottoms which don’t reflect the ethos of the school.

We have a few more incursions and dress-up days heading into the coming weeks.

It’s Science Week next week and I know that Mrs Waters does a “Dress as a Scientist” Day—we had some great Scientists last year. There will also be the Paper Plane competition but I think that Mrs Waters is doing that a little differently this year—more information will come from her.

Mrs Baldwin has organised a Health Incursion—St Johns First Aid—during her lessons on the Wednesday, 13th August. A Connect notice was sent out today.

The Incursion planned for Health for the 20th August (as noted on the term calendar) has been cancelled as it is very similar to the St Johns Incursion.

Interschool Cross Country—15th August—all the best to our team representatives. I know you will all do your best—that’s all we ask of you.

Then Book Week—another dress up day. Remember, characters must come from a book—so don’t forget to bring the book with you. There will be a parade led by Mrs Daniels on Monday, 18th August, starting at 9:00am. Parents are welcome to attend. All children who come in a character costume will be given a class raffle ticket, and go into the “book” prize draw for their class.

More rain this week—stay safe and dry! ,.....Stephanne Dann!
